

Adding Quotation Marks

Remember that quotation marks should be placed at the beginning and end of the words a person is speaking.

Remember that periods, question marks, or exclamation marks that a person or character says go inside the quotation marks.

Remember that a comma separates the short phrase that introduces a direct quote, unless the quote ends with a question mark or exclamation mark.

Remember that the sentence within the quotation marks should begin with a capital letter.

Here are a few examples:

The little girl said, "I can't believe we have to learn this in kindergarten!"

"Did you put your name on your paper?" the teacher asked.

Josh stated, "This math is super easy for me."

Use a pencil to add the proper punctuation to the following sentences.

I just love all of my friends exclaimed Abby

Jonathan said the answer to this question has to be false.

You have to be kidding Dwayne and Troy shouted together

I think we will win the game said the Gator quarterback.

Reagan told Morgan you are my the best sister ever!

May we read our book outside Caleb and Cela asked.

Hooray shouted Kaylie, Ashlyn, and Ava as they ran outside to play.

Will you play tetherball with me Dillan asked Holly

Where were you Mrs. Corbett asked Elliot and Lily when they were late.
