

Alliteration

by Melissa Corbett

Verse 1: When your tongue feels tied up in a knot, alliteration could be what you've got.
Blends, digraphs, or letters like to lead the way,
when the same sound begins every word you say.

Chorus: Alliteration a-a-a, Alliteration a-a-a,
Alliteration a-a-a, Alliteration a-a-a!

Verse 2: Big, brown bears bought bigger books.
Little Lily Lovelace loves Lulu's look.
Peter Piper's pet pig prefers Pam.
Josh and Jonas juggle, jiggle, jerk, and jam!
(chorus)

Verse 3: Slippery, slimy slaw slowly slippy-slops.
Thomas touched tomatoes to their tippy tops.
Orange Owl's only octopus offers oats.
Gilroy's gooey grapes go gurgle granny goats.
(chorus)

Repeat Verse 1

Chorus
