

Alliteration

Alliteration is a poetic element where many or most of the words in a sentence or phrase begin with the same letter or blend. Sometime alliteration can remind you of a "tongue twister."

Example: Little Lily Lovelace loves Lulu's look.

In the following sentences, underline the beginning letter or blend in each word that shows alliteration.

Timmy took two turnips to the Tasty Tavern.

Shelton showed Shawn a short shaggy sheep.

Cullen carried colored candy to California.

Bob brought Betsy a big blue bunch of bad bacteria.

Greg greeted Greta with a grouchy green gorilla.

On the lines below, write some alliteration of your own.

In the space below, illustrate one of the sentences you wrote.

Alliteration Answer Key

Alliteration is a poetic element where many or most of the words in a sentence or phrase begin with the same letter or blend. Sometime alliteration can remind you of a "tongue twister."

Example: Little Lily Lovelace loves Lulu's look.

In the following sentences, underline the beginning letter or blend in each word that shows alliteration.

Timmy took two turnips to the Tasty Tavern.

Shelton showed Shawn a short shaggy sheep.

Cullen carried colored candy to California.

Bob brought Betsy a big blue bunch of bad bacteria.

Greg greeted Greta with a grouchy green gorilla.

On the lines below, write some alliteration of your own.

ANSWERS WILL VARY!

In the space below, illustrate one of the sentences you wrote.