

Verse 1:

When you're comparing and contrasting,
communicating what you know.
You need correlative conjunctions
to sometimes help you with your flow.

Verse 2:

"Co" always means "together";
"Relative" means "to belong."
When you use the two together,
you have the reason for this song.

Chorus:

Neither.....nor, either..... or
Not only.....but, also,
Both.....and, whether.....or,
Just as.....so!
Correlative conjunctions always work in pairs
to compare and contrast the thoughts you'd like to share.

Verse 3:

Either eat your dinner, or leave the table.
Neither yell nor scream at your Aunt Mable.
Eat both your lima beans and your brussel sprouts.
Not only clean your plate, but also wipe your mouth.

Verse 4:

Use them together; do not separate them.
This forever is our ultimatum.
Don't use one of them without the other.
If you don't believe me, go and ask your mother.

Chorus

Verse 5:

Do both your homework and your chores.
Either clean the bathroom, or scrub the floor.
Neither argue nor retaliate.
These correlative conjunctions are working great.

Chorus

Verse 6:

Not only do I understand, but also see how correlative conjunctions can work for me.
Please give me both my allowance and my time to play.
Not only have I know homework, but it's Saturday!

Chorus
