

End the Confusion Lyrics by Melissa Corbett

Chorus: This is the song that will end the confusion.
This is the song of common homophones.
They sound the same with different spellings and meanings.
Each has a meaning that is all its own.

Verse 1: T-H-E-I-R spells "their."
It shows something that belongs to them.
T-H-E-R-E tells "where."
In the direction you are pointing from.
(chorus)

Verse 2: T-H-E-Y-'-RE It's "they are" as a contraction.
Their, there, they're all sound alike,
but you use them differently in action.
(chorus)

Verse 3: T-W-O is a number for counting.
T and O, where you're going to.
T-O-O means "also" or "very,"
if you're too cold or if your friend is too.
(chorus)

Verse 4: Y-O-U-'-RE means "you are" in contraction form.
Y-O-U-R means you own it.
It's your helmet and your uniform.
(chorus)

Verse 5: Their, there, they're.....Two, to, too.....
You're and your are homophones.
Learn this song to end the confusion.
These are rules that are set in stone.
(chorus)
