

Four Kinds of Sentences Differentiation

Read each sentence. On the line after each sentence, tell whether the sentence is declarative, imperative, interrogative, or exclamatory.

Farmer Brown's goat is over there. _____

Put the book over there on the table. _____

Go to the kitchen and help your Aunt Mable. _____

My little brother just cut his own hair! _____

I won first prize at the county fair! _____

Who ate the last piece of cherry pie? _____

Have you seen my brown, fluffy dog? _____

My shirt is pink and blue with yellow stripes. _____

I did my homework on Thursday night. _____

My sister read a book over the summer. _____

When identifying types of sentences, I feel:

_____ confident _____ unsure _____ I need help!

Four Kinds of Sentences Differentiation Answer Key

Read each sentence. On the line after each sentence, tell whether the sentence is declarative, imperative, interrogative, or exclamatory.

Farmer Brown's goat is over there. (declarative)

Put the book over there on the table. (imperative)

Go to the kitchen and help your Aunt Mable. (imperative)

My little brother just cut his own hair! (exclamatory)

I won first prize at the county fair! (exclamatory)

Who ate the last piece of cherry pie? (interrogative)

Have you seen my brown, fluffy dog? (interrogative)

My shirt is pink and blue with yellow stripes. (declarative)

I did my homework on Thursday night. (declarative)

My sister read a book over the summer. (declarative)

When identifying types of sentences, I feel:

_____ confident _____ unsure _____ I need help!