

Chorus:

When to use "good" and when to use "well,"
doesn't require any magic spell.
When the verb shows action, "well" is your word.
Only use "good" when it's a linking verb!

Verse 1:

"Swim" shows action.
Bobby swims well.
"Jump" shows action.
Mary jumps well.
If the verb is something you do,
"well" is your word.
The verb is your clue.

Chorus

Verse 2:

"Are" is a linking verb.
You are good.
"Seem" is a linking verb.
He seems good.
"Is" is a linking verb.
It is good.
"Good" for linking verbs is understood.
