

Identifying Direct Objects _____

highlight verbs - red

highlight direct objects- green

I threw the ball to Joey across the field.

Emily read the book on the sofa.

Mrs. Corbett told her class a funny joke.

Abbey ate the chocolate cupcakes in the kitchen by the sink.

Renee found the gray kitten in the street.

Lauren mixed the batter in the bowl.

The gray squirrel cracked the nut on the ground by the tree.

Henry gave his dog a bone.

Thomas found a hundred dollar bill on the sidewalk.

The boy gave Timmy three nickels in front of the school.

Yossi told Noah the secret in the hallway.

Inari licked the ice cream cone happily.

Renee played the piano in the living room.

The old lady thanked the girl for her help.

Shelton and Alex buried the treasure under the huge rock.

When identifying direct objects in sentences, I feel:

_____ confident _____ unsure

_____ I need help.

Identifying Direct Objects Answer Key

highlight verbs - red

highlight direct objects- green

I threw the ball to Joey across the field. (red - threw, green - ball)

Emily read the book on the sofa. (red - read, green - book)

Mrs. Corbett told her class a funny joke. (red - told, green - joke)

Abbey ate the chocolate cupcakes in the kitchen by the sink.
(red - ate, green - cupcakes)

Renee found the gray kitten in the street. (red - found, green - kitten)

Lauren mixed the batter in the bowl. (red - mixed, green - batter)

The gray squirrel cracked the nut on the ground by the tree.
(red - cracked, green - nut)

Henry gave his dog a bone. (red - gave, green - bone)

Thomas found a hundred dollar bill on the sidewalk.
(red - found, green - bill)

The boy gave Timmy three nickels in front of the school.
(red - gave, green - nickels)

Yossi told Noah the secret in the hallway. (red - told, green - secret)

Inari licked the ice cream cone happily.(red - licked, green - ice cream cone)

Renee played the piano in the living room. (red - player, green - piano)

The old lady thanked the girl for her help. (red - thanked, green - girl)

Shelton and Alex buried the treasure under the huge rock.
(red - buried, green- treasure)