

Identifying Linking Verbs _____

Linking verbs are verbs that show no action; they simply link the subject to more information in your sentence. Examples of linking verbs include am, is, are, was, were, and seem.

For each sentence below, draw a line under the linking verb.

Olivia is an amazing young artist.

She was talented well beyond her years.

The teachers are caring, helpful, and kind.

I am not the best athlete in my class.

You seem to have many awesome toys in your room!

The children at the party were Isabel, Renee, Thomas, and Inari.

Mrs. Corbett is my teacher.

The batteries in my calculator are not working.

Lauren seems very nice.

When identifying linking verbs, I feel:

_____ confident _____ unsure

_____ I need help.

Identifying Linking Verbs Answer Key

Linking verbs are verbs that show no action; they simply link the subject to more information in your sentence. Examples of linking verbs include am, is, are, was, were, and seem.

For each sentence below, draw a line under the linking verb.

Olivia is an amazing young artist.

She was talented well beyond her years.

The teachers are caring, helpful, and kind.

I am not the best athlete in my class.

You seem to have many awesome toys in your room!

The children at the party were Isabel, Renee, Thomas, and Inari.

Mrs. Corbett is my teacher.

The batteries in my calculator are not working.

Lauren seems very nice.