

Interrogative Interrogation

by Melissa Corbett

Verse 1 : I can never mess around,
hang with friends, or cruise the town.
Before I'm ever allowed to go,
my parents always want to know.

Chorus: Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How?
Answer these questions here and now.
It's an interrogative interrogation.
Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How?
Only then can we allow....
And don't ever even think of fabrication!
Interrogative Interrogation...

Verse 2: If I want to go someplace,
to just get out and have some space,
I must tell my parents all I know,
or they'll never, ever let me go!
(chorus)

Verse 3: Finally, one Friday night
Mom was dressed up - dynamite!
Dad said they were going on a date,
but I told them first they'd have to wait!

Final Chorus: I asked...
Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How?
Answer these questions here and now.
It's an interrogative interrogation.
Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How?
Only then can I allow.....
And don't ever even think of fabrication!
Interrogative Interrogation.....
