

Chorus: To join together or show contrast,
using a conjunction is where it's at.
Using conjunctions when you write,
will make your writing dynamite!
(chorus)

Verse 1: "And" combines phrases, sentences, words.
I'll walk the dog and feed the birds.
"But" shows differences you may know.
You were invited, but you can't go!
(chorus)

Verse 2: "Or" gives choices. What should I do...
go to the park or go to the zoo?
"If" adds conditions, you will see.
I'll go to the park if you come with me!
(chorus)

Verse 3: Conjunctions add variety to the mix, when simple sentences need a fix.
and, yet, or, if, therefore, but nevertheless, however, thus, because...
