

Magic Carpet Ride (Narrative Writing Song) Lyrics
by Melissa Corbett

- Verse 1: Stories are always made up in parts.
Indent the first paragraph to make your start.
A cool beginning draws your reader in.
A good introduction's where it all begins.
- Chorus: Stories take the reader on a carpet ride.
Mystery, adventure, whatever you decide.
You get to be the author - your pencil leads the way.
It's time to take your reader on a magic carpet ride today!
- Verse 2: The setting and characters all unfold.
Event after event, until your story is told.
Make a new paragraph for a new idea.
Be sure to indent to make your story clear.
(Chorus)
- Verse 3: A topic sentence states the main idea.
Add in details to make your message clear.
Accurately describe what you must convey.
The middle should be filled with all you have to say.
(Chorus)
- Verse 4: There may be a problem that must be solved.
Perhaps by your ending, it may be resolved.
By the end of your story, your reader should see what an amazing writer you turned out to be!
(Chorus)
