

More Understanding of Possessive Nouns _____

Directions: Possessive nouns use apostrophes to show ownership of objects, thoughts, or people. For each sentence below, analyze the apostrophe usage of the possessive noun. On the line provided, explain if the apostrophe usage is singular or plural, and what is being owned by what or by whom. The first one is done for you.

The boys' room was a complete disaster!
More than one boy (plural) is owning the room. _____

I was surprised that Mrs. Smith's son was visiting.
_____

Linda's dream seemed very scary!
_____

The teachers' work room had many art supplies.
_____

I was excited to see Gomer's project.
_____

The books' covers were torn.
_____

The girl's anger made her seem unkind.
_____

The school's gym held a large crowd of students.
_____

When understanding possessive nouns, I feel:

_____ confident

_____ unsure

_____ I need help!

More Understanding of Possessive Nouns Answer Key

Directions: Possessive nouns use apostrophes to show ownership of objects, thoughts, or people. For each sentence below, analyze the apostrophe usage of the possessive noun. On the line provided, explain if the apostrophe usage is singular or plural, and what is being owned by what or by whom. The first one is done for you.

The boys' room was a complete disaster!

More than one boy is owning the room. (plural)

---

I was surprised that Mrs. Smith's son was visiting.

There is only one Mrs. Smith, and her son belongs to her. (singular)

---

Linda's dream seemed very scary!

Linda is one girl, and she is owning her dream. (singular)

---

The teachers' work room had many art supplies.

There is more than one teacher, and they are owning the work room. (plural)

---

I was excited to see Gomer's project.

Gomer is one boy, and he is owning the project. (singular)

---

The books' covers were torn.

There is more than one book, and the books are owning the covers. (plural)

---

The girl's anger made her seem unkind.

There is only one girl, and she is owning her anger. (singular)

---

The school's gym held a large crowd of students.

There is only one school, and it is owning its gym. (singular)

---