

Preposition Review

adjectives -green

prepositions - orange

objects-blue

Jamen read the exciting book during the weekend.

Isabel and Elizabeth hunted for colorful Easter eggs in the park.

Josh ran around the prickly bush and through the gate.

Thomas saw bright, twinkling stars in the dark sky.

Renee went to the store with her mother.

Olivia wore her new, red dress to the fancy party.

Abbey, McKenna, and Kat played with their fluffy Webkinz under the shady tree.

Kevin and Patrick walked through the creepy hallway, down the broken stairway, and out the door.

Noah ran around the enormous tree, under the monkey bars, through the dark tunnel, and past the slippery slide.

Allie was so happy she ran around the classroom and jumped on the table!

Timmy looked under the table, behind the blue curtain, and inside the toy box, for his brother Sam.

Mrs. Corbett jumped off the diving board and into the water!

Key - adjectives - green

exciting
colorful prickly
bright, twinkling, dark new, red, fancy
fluffy, shady
creepy, broken
enormous, dark, slippery happy
blue

prepositions - orange

during for, in around, through in to, with
to
with, under through, down, out
around, under, through, past around, on under, behind, beside, for off, into

objects (of the preposition) - blue

weekend
Easter eggs, park
bush, gate
sky
store, mother
party
tree
hallway, stairway, door tree, monkey bars, tunnel, slide classroom, table
table, curtain, box, Sam diving board, water