

Pronoun and Antecedent Practice _____

Pronouns are words that replace nouns. Antecedents are the nouns being referred to by the pronoun.

Directions: Draw a box around each pronoun and draw an arrow to its antecedent.

Allie ate all of her pancakes.

A lion can be loud when it roars.

Jonas played with his toys.

Elizabeth and Isabel gave their mom a present for Mother's Day.

The cat ran all around its scratching post.

Superman wore his blue outfit and red cape.

Mrs. Corbett sang her new song to the class.

The children hung all their coats in the closet.

We brushed our teeth before going to bed.

Josh couldn't believe his luck!

The rainbow was filled with its bright and vivid colors.

When identifying pronouns and antecedents in sentences, I feel:
