

Chorus:

Pronouns replace nouns.
All are in agreement.
Every pronoun that you meet,
refers to its antecedent.

Verse 1:

Billy did well on his test.
"His" is the pronoun you see.
The antecedent is Billy.
Both pronoun and antecedent agree.

Chorus

Verse 2:

Marsha sang her new song.
"Her" is the pronoun of choice.
Marsha is the antecedent.
"Her" and "Marsha" share the same voice.

Chorus

Verse 3:

Bob and Al played with their toys.
The children did all of their chores.
Allie ate all her pancakes.
A lion can be loud when it roars.
