

Replacing Subjects with Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns.

Read each sentence. Decide on a pronoun to use in place of the subject.
Rewrite the sentence using the pronoun in place of the subjects.

Mr. Smith took a walk.

Our whole family went to the beach.

Elizabeth and Caleb played the drums.

My guitar needed to be tuned.

The football player caught the pass.

The children sang a song about pronouns.

Reagan did well on her math test.

When substituting pronouns for subjects in sentences, I feel:

_____ confident

_____ unsure

_____ I need help.

Answer Key for Replacing Subjects with Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns.

Read each sentence. Decide on a pronoun to use in place of the subject.

Rewrite the sentence using the pronoun in place of the subjects.

Mr. Smith took a walk.

He took a walk.

Our whole family went to the beach.

We went to church.

Elizabeth and Caleb played the drums.

They played the drums.

My guitar needed to be tuned.

It needed to be tuned.

The football player caught the pass.

He caught the pass.

The children sang a song about pronouns.

They sang a song about pronouns.

Reagan did well on her math test.

She did well on her math test.

When substituting pronouns for subjects in sentences, I feel:

_____ confident

_____ unsure

_____ I need help.