

Using Adjectives to Modify Nouns _____

Underline the nouns in the following sentences. On the line below each sentence, rewrite the sentence to include one adjective for each noun.

Example: The cat chased the mouse around the table.

The striped cat chased the squeaky mouse around the elegant table.

The elephant crunched the peanut and drank water.

The girl ate the spaghetti with sauce.

When the boy fell asleep, he had a dream.

Would you rather rake leaves or wash dishes?

I can't believe the bird sang in the tree for one hour!

I like to read books and play games with my friends.

I was shocked when the lady screamed at the man!

The car raced down the road toward the park.

Using Adjectives to Modify Nouns Answer Key

(NOUNS ARE UNDERLINED/ADJECTIVE CHOICES WILL VARY!)

Underline the nouns in the following sentences. On the line below each sentence, rewrite the sentence to include one adjective for each noun.

Example: The cat chased the mouse around the table.

The striped cat chased the squeaky mouse around the elegant table.

The elephant crunched the peanut and drank water.

The grey elephant crunched the brown peanut and drank cool water.

The girl ate the spaghetti with sauce.

The little girl ate the stringy spaghetti with red sauce.

When the boy fell asleep, he had a dream.

When the exhausted boy fell asleep, he had a horrible dream.

Would you rather rake leaves or wash dishes?

Would you rather rake crunchy leaves or wash dirty dishes?

I can't believe the bird sang in the tree for one hour!

I can't believe the blue bird sang in the big tree for one whole hour!

I like to read books and play games with my friends.

I like to read mystery books and play silly games with my best friends.

I was shocked when the lady screamed at the man!

I was shocked when the tiny lady screamed at the huge, muscular man!

The car raced down the road toward the park.

The sporty car raced down the windy road toward the peaceful park.