

Using Onomatopoeia _____

Writers use onomatopoeia to paint a clearer picture in their readers' heads. You are a writer. Use each example of onomatopoeia to create a sentence that will give your readers a picture of what you are describing.

Example:

"Crack!" _____
"Crack!" went the sound of the bat as Carter hit the ball.

"Choo! Choo!" _____

"Drip, drop!" _____

"Snip! Snip!" _____

"Zap!" _____

"Roar!" _____

"Squeak!" _____

"Crunch!" _____

Using Onomatopoeia _____

Writers use onomatopoeia to paint a clearer picture in their readers' heads. You are a writer. Use each example of onomatopoeia to create a sentence that will give your readers a picture of what you are describing.

Example:

"Crack!" _____
"Crack!" went the sound of the bat as Carter hit the ball.

ANSWERS WILL VARY!

"Choo! Choo!" _____

"Drip, drop!" _____

"Snip! Snip!" _____

"Zap!" _____

"Roar!" _____

"Squeak!" _____

"Crunch!" _____
